

REMUNERATION POLICY OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE AND EXECUTIVE MANAGEMENT OF IAR S.A.

Taking into account the fact that IAR SA is an open commercial company, with majority state capital, it has the obligation to comply with the provisions of Ordinance no. 26/2013 on strengthening financial discipline at the level of economic operators in which the state or administrative-territorial units are sole or majority shareholders or directly or indirectly hold a majority stake (as stipulated in art. 1 of the respective legislative act),

Taking into account the fact that the GMS Decision no. 07 / 28.09.2017 approved the initiation of the selection procedure of the members of the Board of Directors of IAR SA, with the application of the provisions of art. 3, point 7 of the Emergency Ordinance no. 109/2011 on the corporate governance of public enterprises, approved with amendments and completions by Law no. 111/2016, but the selection procedure has not been completed so far,

Taking into account the provisions of art. 14, paragraph (2) of GO 26/2013, according to which, until the appointment of the directors and the general director with a mandate contract according to the respective legislative act, "the level of remunerations of the members of the boards of directors, supervisory board members and directors who were not appointed under the conditions of the Government Emergency Ordinance no. 109/2011 on the corporate governance of public enterprises, with subsequent amendments and completions, is established by assimilation with those provided by it, within the approved budgetary provisions. "

Taking into account the provisions of art. 37, paragraphs (1) and (2) of GEO 109/2011, according to which: "The remuneration of the members of the board of directors or, as the case may be, of the members of the supervisory board is established by the general meeting of shareholders. the structure and the limits provided in par. (2) and (4).

The remuneration of the non-executive members of the board of directors or of the supervisory board consists of a fixed monthly indemnity and a variable component. The fixed indemnity cannot exceed twice the average for the last 12 months of the average gross monthly earnings for the activity carried out according to the main object of activity registered by the company, at class level according to the classification of activities in the national economy, communicated by the National Institute of Statistics prior to his/her appointment. . The variable component is established on the basis of financial and non-financial performance indicators negotiated and approved by the general meeting of shareholders, different from those approved for the executive directors, determined in compliance with the methodology provided in art. 31 para. (5) and which aim at including the long-term sustainability of the company and ensuring compliance with the principles of good governance. The amount of the variable component of non-executive members may not exceed a maximum of 12 fixed monthly indemnities.

The general meeting of shareholders will be ensured, when establishing the fixed monthly indemnity of each member of the board of directors or, as the case may be, of each member of the supervisory board, determined according to par. (2) and (4), that it is justified in relation to the specific duties, the attributions in some consultative committees, with the number of meetings, the objectives and the performance criteria established in the mandate contract. "

Taking into account the provisions of art. 37, paragraph (3) of GEO 109/2001, according to which: "The remuneration of the executive members of the board of directors or of the supervisory board consists of a fixed monthly indemnity that may not exceed 6 times the average for the last 12 months of earnings average gross monthly salary for the activity carried out according to the main object of activity registered by the company, at class level according to the classification of activities in the national economy, communicated by the National Institute of Statistics before appointment, and of a variable component. The variable component will be based on financial and non-financial performance indicators, negotiated and approved by the general meeting of shareholders, different from those approved for non-executive members of the board of directors, determined in compliance with the methodology provided in art. 31 para. (5). The amount of the variable component of executive directors may not exceed the maximum amount of the variable component of non-executive members, which shall be 12 fixed monthly indemnities."

Taking into account the provisions of art. 38 of GEO 109/2011, according to which: "The remuneration of the directors is established by the board of directors and may not exceed the level of remuneration established for the executive members of the board of directors. It is the only form of remuneration for directors who also serve as members of the board of directors.

The remuneration consists of a fixed monthly indemnity established within the limits provided in art. 37 para. (3) and a variable component consisting of a share of the company's net profit, the granting of shares, stock-options or an equivalent scheme, a pension scheme or another form of remuneration based on performance indicators.

The approved financial and non-financial performance indicators are elements against which the variable remuneration component for the company's directors is determined. "

Considering the request of the Ministry of Economy - majority shareholder of the IAR SA Company, to review the remuneration policy of the general manager applied until now, by canceling the variable component that could be granted to him based on the GMS Decision 06/27.04.2018,

Taking into account the provisions of article 106 of Law no. 24/2017 on issuers of financial instruments and market operations, as subsequently amended and supplemented, and of Article II, paragraph (2) of Law no. implementing Regulation (EU) 2017 / 2.402 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 12 December 2017 establishing a general framework for securitization and creating a specific framework for simple, transparent and standardized securitization and amending Directives 2009 / 65 / EC, 2009/138 / EC and 2011/61 / EU, as well as Regulations (EC) no. 1,060 / 2009 and (EU) no. 648/2012,
